JUSTICE

A thick, horizontal orange brushstroke with a textured, watercolor-like appearance, featuring a frayed left edge. It is positioned below the main title and above the subtitle.

A UNITED PETITION

*“Is not this the fast that I choose:
to loose the bonds of wickedness,
to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?”*

*Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover him,
and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?
Then shall your light break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up speedily;
your righteousness shall go before you;
the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.
Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’”*

AN INVITATION

Dear Christ Central,

This year, Black History Month overlaps with Lent. Lent is a season for us to lament and grieve our sins as we long for healing and redemption, which comes in Jesus's death and resurrection, which we will celebrate during Holy Week. We are offering this Lenten devotional that spans Black History Month as a resource for formation during this season.

The Lent tradition began in the 3rd and 4th centuries of the early church as a period of 40 days (a season) of preparation and repentance in anticipation of the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Day. The word "lent" comes from the Latin word meaning "dawning of the sun." This early church practice was born out of the biblical narrative of Israel wandering in the wilderness for 40 years and Jesus' temptation in the wilderness for 40 days; the church adopted 40 days of preparation for Easter's "dawning of the sun"— Jesus Christ's triumphal resurrection from death, when God's light of the world triumphed and dawned upon all of the brokenness and darkness of His creation.

Lent is a season for the church to reflect and examine the darkness that lies within our own hearts and the darkness of our world. It is a season of repentance and a cry for God to restore and redeem, all with an eye and heart anticipating Easter Day, when a crucified Messiah would powerfully resurrect and usher in His redemption. Lent is a time to enter into mourning, to ask God to help us see our own frailty and brokenness, to help us mourn for our neighbors, this city, and our world, crying out for deep personal and corporate repentance

Why Lent? If you grew up in a church tradition, it's possible you grew up with one of two postures towards Lent:

1. Observed Lent every year. Perhaps you observed just because you were supposed to, and Lent became perfunctory and lost its potency.
2. Never observed Lent. Perhaps you grew up in a tradition that didn't observe any of the church calendar/seasons because the church felt like every day was supposed to be lived in light of the whole gospel story (i.e. Christmas and Easter).

Personally, I have spent time in both traditions, and have come to a place where I am extremely grateful for times and seasons of focus and preparation of the gospel story, all while praying that our rhythms never become rote and lose the potency of the gospel.

How will we celebrate Lent this year? Lent begins on Wednesday, February 14th, which is Ash Wednesday. It is the beginning of this season of mourning and repentance. It is often marked by the imposition of ashes on the forehead to remind us of the frailty and brokenness of our world, the mourning we enter into, and the hope that we have because Christ took on our mortality and was raised from ashes so that we might share in His resurrection life.

We pray that this guide will help guide your meditations and prepare your heart for the crucifixion and resurrection of our Messiah, Jesus. Please note that this guide does not include Saturday or Sundays.

May we all grow in this season of mourning and reflection as we anticipate the triumph of Easter morning.

Grace and peace,

Rev. Daniel Mason

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 36:5-6

*Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens; Your faithfulness to the skies.
Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains; Your justice like the great deep O LORD, you preserve both man and beast.*

CONFESSIO N OF SIN

Father in heaven, we need to be forgiven. We have tried to heal ourselves. Instead of trusting in the death of Jesus Christ, we have tried to work off our guilt. We have tried so hard to pile up good deeds that outweigh our sins. When this doesn't work, we quickly turn to denial and distraction. Instead of trusting in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have tried to change through our own efforts. We have tried to change our hearts through sheer willpower.

This has left some of us arrogant. This has left most of us anxious and depressed. Forgive us for trying to heal ourselves. Forgive us for neglecting your grace. Forgive us and heal us, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Colossians 2:13-14

And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross.

Isaiah 30:18

Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you, and therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you. For the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive what our lips tremble to name, what our hearts can no longer bear, and what has become for us a consuming fire of judgment. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image, through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen.

1 John 1:4-7

And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

MARCH 11

CALL TO WORSHIP

Jeremiah 20:13

*Sing to the Lord;
praise the Lord!
For he has delivered the life of the needy from the hand of evildoers.*

CONFESSION OF SIN

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and to save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you and turned aside from your way. We are misled by pride, for we see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, neglected injustice, and ignored your truth. Have mercy on us, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Psalms 103:8-12

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

MARCH 12

CALL TO WORSHIP

1 Chronicles 16:35-36

*“Save us, O God of our salvation,
and gather and deliver us from among the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name
and glory in your praise.
Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting!”*

CONFESSION OF SIN

Lord God, You require us to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly before You. We confess that we have not loved You or our neighbor in this way. We repent of this. Grant that Your Holy Spirit drives us to seek these things through Christ. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Ephesians 1:7-10

In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, which he lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his purpose, which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

May he bring you home rejoicing: once again into our doors.

MARCH 13

CALL TO WORSHIP

Hosea 2:18-19

I will make for them a covenant on that day with the beasts of the field, the birds of the heavens, and the creeping things of the ground. And I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land, and I will make you lie down in safety. And I will betroth you to me forever. I will betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in steadfast love and in mercy.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved You with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done Your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against Your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Romans 3:23-25

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins.

MARCH 14

CALL TO WORSHIP

1 Chronicles 16:31-34

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, "The Lord reigns!" Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it! Then shall the trees of the forest sing for joy before the Lord, for he comes to judge the earth. Oh give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!

CONFESSION OF SIN

Father in heaven, we need to be forgiven. We have tried to heal ourselves. Instead of trusting in the death of Jesus Christ, we have tried to work off our guilt. We have tried so hard to pile up good deeds that outweigh our sins. When this doesn't work, we quickly turn to denial and distraction. Instead of trusting in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have tried to change through our own efforts. We have tried to change our hearts through sheer willpower.

This has left some of us arrogant. This has left most of us anxious and depressed.

Forgive us for trying to heal ourselves. Forgive us for neglecting your grace. Forgive us and heal us, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Psalms 145:8-9

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made.

"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, for true and just are his judgments.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive what our lips tremble to name, what our hearts can no longer bear, and what has become for us a consuming fire of judgment. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image, through Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. and nations under our feet.
He chose our heritage for us,
